The storyline of Grim Tales: Crimson Hollow involves two strange girls showing up at the manor of the Gray family. One of them is a young schoolgirl named Lindy Gray, who went missing during the night and is feared to be kidnapped. The other girl is her mysterious elder, who insists on staying at the manor. The stranger says she's a descendant of the Gray family, but, well, from another, far away part of the world. During the few days they've been at the manor, neither girl managed to leave the place without a strange attack that injured one of them, so the stranger has hired you to find her missing friend, and, of course, to find the cause of the attacks.
