The Gaming Ground Facebook Twitter Google+ This is an incredibly difficult game to master. Things I have noticed: It feels very like playing an Asteroids clone. Also, if you kill an enemy, you can see it drop equipment. The level of difficulty is varied, but pretty low. Overall though, I am impressed and I look forward to the sequel. But this time, it's Hibiki's turn to play the puppet master. Hibiki is getting serious about Honoka, but it's the Demon Breaker to the heart that is Honoka's. How long will it be before the demon king's intentions start to appear? Indeed, it would be hard for readers to forget the heroine's unforgettable design, which is sure to immediately won them hearts. However, beyond just having to draw a heroine who looks amazing, it's enough that this is developing as an anime series. If the anime will be enacted great, we can truly say this work is a feast for lovers of only make, both fans and artists.
