What's new:

, also known as Onechanbara (ワンピース) is a Japanese shōjo adventure light novel series written by Kazumi Amami. The series was first published by TokyoPop and later re-published by Futabasha in 2006. The manga adaptation was serialized between 2004 and 2011. Story Onechanbara is a shōjo adventure story set in a futuristic era. The protagonist of the series is the lively 4th grader Naoe Sanada, nicknamed "Naoe-chan". She often trips and falls down repeatedly, as she is naïve and clumsy. Her home is the Sanada house, which was built many years earlier. In one night, after 16 years of living in the Sanada house, the house suddenly shifts into the present day. Since that night, strange incidents begin to occur in the house, transforming it into a "one-day nightmare" (ワンデーナイトメア). To stop the nightmare, Naoe-chan is going to take the help of a strange, masked figure named Ochanbara. Onechanbara series Artwork Onechanbara is a colorful shōjo light novel series. The manga is primarily in two colors, gold and black. Main characters Naoe Sanada Naoe Sanada, nicknamed "Naoe-chan", is a lively 4th-grader. She often trips and falls down repeatedly, as she is naïve and clumsy. Her house is her home, which underwent a transformation into Onechanbara many years prior. She's attracted to the masked figure Ochanbara and was a bit worried how the figure will react to her. Naoe-chan also loves to walk around the Ochanbara mansion, because it gives her "chills".
